MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

THROUGH: Deputy Director for Intelligence

THROUGH: Office of General Counsel

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] Request for Clearance of Proposed Consulting Contract

REFERENCE: Attached Memorandum dated 7 March 1970 from [REDACTED] Subject: [REDACTED] Consulting
Contract

1. In the referenced memorandum, [REDACTED] a senior analyst in the Systems Development Staff of this Office, requests approval to enter into a consultant contract with the [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] states that his work for [REDACTED] would be done after normal Agency working hours and/or while on annual leave, and, on this basis, we do not believe that his part-time employment will adversely affect his working efficiency in the Agency.

2. In August 1969, [REDACTED] was granted security approval to enter into a similar consultant contract with the [REDACTED] and at the same time was granted tentative approval for the consultant relationship with [REDACTED] subject to the condition that the contract be submitted for review and approval by the Office of General Counsel. It is in compliance with this condition that [REDACTED] is submitting the [REDACTED] contract and related papers for review and approval at this time. [REDACTED] assures us that appropriate [REDACTED] officials are aware of his Agency employment.

3. This Office recommends that [REDACTED] request as outlined in the referenced memorandum be approved.
